OCTOBER SESSIONS, 1774.

IT IS ORDERED,

THAT the PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND-JURY for this Diſtrict, be publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes of this Province.

By the Court,

James Johnſton, C. C. & P.

THE PRESENTMENTS OF The GRAND-JURY for the Diſtrict of CHARLES-TOWN, at a Court of General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Aſſize and General Goal Delivery, begun and holden at CHARLES-TOWN, on Tueſday the 18th Day of October, 1774.

I. WE preſent as a GRIEVANCE, That the Commiſſioners appointed by ſeveral Acts, are not ſworn to the due Performance of their Office.

II. We preſent as a very great GRIEVANCE, That the Inhabitants are deprived of an Opportunity of knowing the Laws of the Province, and recommend Publications of the ſame, or a Compendium to be made out and publiſhed, by order of the Legiſlature, at the Expence of the Public; the ſame to be reimburſed by the Sale thereof.

III. We preſent as a GRIEVANCE, That CHARLES-TOWN now become very populous, is not incorporated, whereby the internal Police of the ſame may be more eaſily regulated, and better managed, than by the preſent Methods of Proceedings at Law.

IV. We preſent as a great GRIEVANCE, That the Negroes in CHARLES-TOWN are become ſo obſcene in their Language, ſo irregular and diſorderly in their Conduct, and ſo ſuperfluous in their Numbers we think it calls for the immediate Attention of the Legiſlature.

V. We preſent as a GRIEVANCE, That the Laws for reducing the Number of Dram Shops in CHARLES-TOWN, have not been attended to, as they certainly are great a Nuiſance as can be in any Community, by taking off the Attention of the Slaves (of the Inhabitants of CHARLES-TOWN, generally and particularly the Servants of thoſe who from the Country attending the Market) from their Maſters Service.

VI. We preſent as a very great GRIEVANCE, The manufacturing of Candles and Soap in CHARLES-TOWN, it being well known that the Management of ſuch Buſineſs is generally left to Negroes by Night as well as by Day.

VII. We preſent that Negroes are allowed to be retailing Goods, Wares and Merchandize through the Streets of CHARLES-TOWN, to the great Hurt of the regular Trade.

VIII. We preſent the ſelling of Rice and other Articles of Victuals in and about the Wharves, to the Encouragement of Negroes ſtealing ſuch Articles, and employing one another to ſell the ſame.

IX. We preſent as a great GRIEVANCE, That the Evil of giving and receiving Challenges, has become too general, or otherwiſe encouraged, to the Danger of the Inhabitants; for the preventing of which, the Laws are either not ſufficiently penal, or the Execution thereof neglected.

LASTLY, We recommend, That theſe Preſentments may be publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 26th, 1774.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

If you think the following not unworthy a Place in your Paper, you may pocket the Needful inclosed, and, by inserting it, oblige Yours, &c.

A COUNTRYMAN.

A Reasonable Man will not be angry with another merely for differing with him in Opinion; nor will a Man of generous Principles despise him for claiming the Privilege every Individual has a Right to, that of thinking for himself. Such a Conduct in an Advocate for the Privileges of the People, would be a flat Contradiction of his own Principles. A real Patriot (agreeable to my Idea of such a one) upon the Transaction of Public Business, when Matters of Importance to his Country are to be agitated, would earnestly wish for, and sincerely rejoice at, the Attendance of Men of distinguished Abilities, of direct opposite Sentiments. Every Proposition made would then be fairly considered, all Measures determined on must give universal Satisfaction; at least, no Man "possessed of reasoning Faculties" would, after his Arguments had been fairly invalidated, his Objections clearly obviated, obstinately persist in maintaining, or endeavouring to maintain, an Opinion in Opposition to a Majority of the People assembled; except such as, thinking highly of their oratorical Abilities, are urged by a foolish Vanity to make an ostentatious Display of their amazing Talents, or, having a certain innate Pride, cannot bear the humiliating Circumstance of allowing themselves to be vanquished. It is the indispensable Duty of every Member of the Community to attend all public Meetings. Every Man has a Right to be present, and a Right to declare his Sentiments. If he neglects to avail himself of this Privilege, with Reason he can blame no one but himself; He has not the least Shadow of a Right to censure Measures that have received the Sanction of a respectful Body of his Countrymen, at whose Councils he would not assist. The Man who in such a Predicament should, prompted by Interest or Vanity, presume to censure the public Proceedings, should meet, from the Public, at least the Contempt his Presumption merits. If "lowered by Disappointment," or still urged by Vanity, that Passion of a little Mind, he should again take up his Pen, and convince the World that he had, in Contradiction to his own Principles, prostituted his Abilities, let me ask my Countrymen, does such a Man deserve your good Opinion, your Caresses, or your slightest Notice?

A STRANGER coming amongst us with an Intention to settle, is, or rather may be, as much interested for the Welfare of the Province as a Native, after a few Years Residence; when he has formed Connections, and there is Reason to believe the Remainder of his Days will be spent amongst us. The Distinction of Scotchman, Irishman, &c. should be dropped. He should be considered as an American, as a Carolinian. And he has an equal Right with a Native, to declare his Sentiments; provided he does it at a proper Time, with Decency, and without Scurrility. But should a Stranger, no Body knows who, without any the least apparent Interest in the Province, his Conduct very suspicious, a Pensioner probably, according to Johnson's Definition (I don't affirm it, but profered Services may warrant such a Presumption): at so critical a Time as the present, should so dangerous a Man drop in amongst us, publicly avow Sentiments that may influence weak Minds, especially of the lower Class; let me seriously ask my Countrymen another Question—how should he be treated?—My humble Opinion is, which, with all due Deference to the Public, I submit to their superior Judgment, that he should, by the first Vessel that sails, be shipped from America.

I am a downright plain, unlettered, home-bred Countryman: I understand nothing of "Grammar Coherence." Should any Man blessed with "Temple Erudition," or University Education, think proper to reply to, or criticise upon this Performance, I am very sensible how unequal I shall be in a Contest to such Literati: However, an Answer will be given, in such Language as might be expected from HOMESPUN.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 31.

ON the 5th Instant, Ninety of the Members chosen in Consequence of Governor Gage's Writs for calling a General Assembly, met at the Court-House in Salem, pursuant to the Precepts; and after waiting a Day, without being admitted to the usual Oaths, which should have been administered by the Governor, or other constitutional Officers, they chose the Hon. JOHN HANCOCK to be their Chairman, and BENJAMIN LINCOLN, Esq; Clerk, and proceeded to Business, by passing several RESOLVES, purporting, That His Excellency's Conduct, in preventing the Meeting of the General Court, by his Proclamation of the 28th of September, is against the express Words of the Charter—That his Representations of the Province, as being in a tumultuous and disorderly State, are Reflections by no Means merited; as the People, in their laudable Endeavours to preserve themselves from Slavery, have, upon all Occasions, discovered the greatest Aversion to Disorder and Tumult, altho' under the most alarming and just Apprehensions, from the constitutional Government being attempted to be superceded and annulled by a considerable military Force. That his discharging the Members elected, but a few Days before the Court was to have been convened, is a Measure not consistent with the Dignity of the Province, and therefore ought to be considered as a disrespectful Treatment thereof; and as an Opposition to that Reconciliation between Great-Britain and the Colonies so ardently wished for by both—That some of the Causes assigned for the Prevention of the General Court, in all good Governments, have been considered among the greatest Reasons for assembling a Parliament or Assembly; and therefore the Proclamation is a further Proof, not only of the Governor's Disaffection to the Province, but of the Necessity of its most vigorous and immediate Exertions for preserving the Freedom and Constitution thereof.—After passing these Resolves, they resolved themselves into a PROVINCIAL CONGRESS, to be joined by such other Persons as had been or should be chosen, to take into Consideration the dangerous and alarming Situation of Public Affairs in that Province; and adjourned to the Court-House in Concord, there to meet on Tuesday the 11th.

A Committee that was appointed on Wednesday last, to consider, what Measures ought to be pursued, to prevent Engrossing, Exporting, or advancing the Prices of European Goods, to the Prejudice of the Inhabitants, particularly of the interior and frontier Parts, of this Colony, made their Report to the General Committee on Friday;—in Consequence of which the following Advertisement was ordered to be published, viz.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 28, 1774.

WHEREAS from the Prospect of a Non-Importation Agreement being entered into, there is great Reason to apprehend, that some MERCENARY INDIVIDUALS, intending to take Advantage of the Public Distress, are daily engrossing and buying up large Quantities of Goods, with a View to keep the same for Sale, and hereafter to raise or regulate the Prices of them: And as it has been suggested, that Commissions, seemingly of this Tendency, have been received, from SUCH PERSONS in some of our Sister Colonies;

The General Committee having taken the same into Consideration, and being apprehensive of some mischievous Consequences therefrom, DO UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMEND to and REQUEST of, the Merchants, Shop-Keepers, and others in this Colony,

That they will endeavour to detect all such Engrossers, and to the utmost of their Power, discourage and defeat their mercenary Schemes; and that, if they should receive any Commissions of this Tendency, from any Place whatever, they will decline executing the same.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE also do earnestly & UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMEND to the Merchants, Shop-keepers and others, as they prize the Tranquillity and Happiness of America, that they will not take Advantage of its Distresses; but that they will be content with, and demand no more than, the usual Advance, upon such Goods and Merchandize as they now have by them, or hereafter may be allowed to import.

By Order of the General Committee.

PETER TIMOTHY, Secretary.

Last Wednesday embarked, in the Ship Maesgwynn, on his Return for England, Capt. Robert Norris, having made the Tour of North-America.

Several ASSOCIATIONS are now forming, among the principal Gentlemen, and others here, in order to acquire the most speedy and perfect Knowledge in Military Exercise and Discipline—that they may not be less qualified than the Inhabitants of any other Colony, to defend His Majesty's Dominions, or their Liberties, whenever either shall be wantonly attacked.

The GENTLEMEN in the COUNTRY also, begin to be so thoroughly sensible of the Necessity of having, and the particularly Usefulness of, LIGHT HORSE, in this Colony, that, we hear, many of them will forthwith seriously set about to promote and encourage the forming and training a Troop in each Parish.

The Commissioners of the Markets, with two Magistrates, have spent a whole Week in a very essential Service to this Community, which had been too long neglected; and it is now hoped, that other Magistrates, stimulated by their Example, will be induced to take Turns in the same Service. They visited the Butcher's Slaughter-Houses and Pens, tried and adjusted their Weights, Beams and Scales, and fined them for killing or Sundry contrary to Law: They next tried and adjusted the Weights, Beams and Scales at every Wharf, and some other Places: And concluded, with trying the Baker's Bread, so much of which was found deficient in Weight, that they were obliged to seize near 900 Half-Crown Loaves, which they distributed to the Poor with their own Hands. Some of the Brown Bread, which is used chiefly by the Poor, wanted no less than 17 Ounces, and the White in general from 4 to 7 Ounces, of the proper Weight.

Last Friday died, much regretted by the whole Parish, to which, as well as his Family and Friends his Death is an irreparable Loss, Daniel Ravenell, sen. Esq; of St. John's Parish in Berkley County.

Last Saturday Evening died, in the 81st, or, as some suppose, in the 86th Year of his Age, THOMAS LAMBOLL, Esq; a Gentleman of proverbial Integrity and Uprightness, and much lamented tho' he died at so late a Period. He had sustained sundry honourable Employments in the Government with great Dignity, but for a long Time past had declined public Business, contented to serve Mankind in a Sphere where he might be useful tho' less conspicuous. Perhaps all the Papers now in the Province do not contain so good an History of it as was recorded in his Memory. He has not left a Person so well acquainted with all its Concerns as himself. He was an honest and truly religious Man, without Affectation. He lived usefully, and he died comfortably. In steady Reliance upon the only Hope of a Christain, he entered the Valley of Death as he used to enter his Office. He well understood what he was about, in an Hour which comes upon others with Surprise, and is one of those few Instances, in which a Man, dying above Fourscore, is greatly missed and sincerely regretted.

Some of the present Year's Crop of Rice is already at Market; but the Price not fixed.

Yesterday died, Miss Sarah Croft, the last of the Family of the late Childermas Croft, Esq.

The Quantity of last Year's Crop of Rice gone from this Port since the 1st of November, 1773, with what is now on Ship-board not yet cleared, and in Stores, is reckoned to amount to 125,000 Tierces.

An authentic Extract, or rather the Substance, of a Letter dated NEW-LONDON, Sept. 7, 1774—to certain Gentlemen then (16th Sept.) in the City of PHILADELPHIA.

"GENTLEMEN,

"I THINK it may serve some valuable purposes, to inform you, as well as I can, the state of the country here, on the late alarming news of the destruction of the Town of Boston.—I left that town on Thursday last, at 10 o'clock, A. M. and arrived here on Saturday, before day-light the next morning, this alarming account was brought us. Expresses were instantly dispatched from us, one of them directed to proceed for Boston, until he should find the true state of the people in that town and province. The alarm flew from town to town, with the most surprising rapidity, and by Sunday noon, nearly as I can learn, the country were alarmed, for more than one hundred and fifty miles in extent, and were actually under arms, and on their march for Boston. I am within bounds when I tell you, that more than fifteen thousand were enrolled, and actually marched, some of them 80 miles, before the news was contradicted. The determined fortitude which appeared in the face of the people was most surprising. The most fixed resolution, to avenge the blood of their countrymen, was visible in the countenances of all I met with.—It is an happy circumstance, to find the country able, on no more notice, to raise, and furnish such a body of men, for none of them marched with less than thirty-two pounds, and with proper arms, and suitable baggage, and provision, for their expedition. There was no difficulty to find men willing to march, but to restrain them—Col. Putnam, Col. Babcock, and several other officers, who served in the late war, took the command of the forces. On the news reaching Chetham, the Minister left his pulpit, and marched at the head of almost his whole parish. This alarm happening on Sunday, occasioned some diverting incidents—in one parish a number appeared ready provided with arms and ammunition, but complained that they had not stockings and shoes, and other cloathing sufficient for such a journey, on which their Captain went into the meeting-house, and, by consent of the people, took as many stockings and shoes, and other cloathing from the people present, as supplied those who were willing to venture their lives, in defence of their country, and instantly marched off with his men. In one town, after all had marched, that were or could be suitably armed, the ardour of those remaining was so great, that they armed themselves with scythes, fixed on poles, and marched off in that manner. The resolution of every age and sex was surprising. In many places the women assisted their husbands and sons, in preparing for their march, with as much coolness and deliberation, as they performed the ordinary offices of the family with. I have heard of but one officer, who declined the service, this was a new-made Captain, who said he would give up his commission. The company he commanded declared, they will never serve under him more, but will remonstrate against him and have him dismissed.

"In consequence of this alarm, our towns are enrolling a suitable number of good men in each town, to be ready to march at an hour's warning, and all arming themselves, in the best possible manner. Whilst this spirit remains, we trust, we shall be victorious if called upon. The country is anxious to hear the result of your deliberations, but if they end in petitions, and nothing more, the country will not be satisfied. They are ready to receive, and adhere to a non importation, a non-consumption, and non-exportation agreement, if thought necessary. But no man can be content with any thing short of a radical redress of our grievances.

"Eternal thanks are due to Frederick the Treasurer for the Canada Bill at this time, if the spirit of Englishmen is left, it must sound like thunder from one corner of the kingdom to the other, and may greatly serve the general American cause—it is needless for me to say, that such a Bill cannot pass unnoticed, by so respectable a body as are now convened at Philadelphia—It is happy to find such coolness and fortitude in the town of Boston, and at the same time such zeal and ardor in the country, especially in that province.—The conduct of the people at Springfield, and the consequent resignation of the Judges, &c. you will see an account of before this reaches you.—The manly firmness with which jurors made their stand in Boston would have done honour to the Romans, in the days of their liberty.—I was present at the debate, which was continued for near three hours; but not a man of them could be brought so much as to doubt of the propriety of their refusal—such flames have never before been kindled in our American world: God grant they may never be extinguished, until American Liberty is fixed on a foundation too firm to be shaken by the attacks of all the powers of earth and hell."——May wisdom direct you, and firmness and fortitude enable you to withstand the devices of your subtle and potent adversaries.—

Yours, &c."

JACOB VALK.

NEW-YORK, September 8, 1774.

WHEN the Conduct of Individuals in a Community is ſuch, as to attract public Attention, others are very naturally led to many Inquiries about them; ſo when civil States riſe into Importance, even their earlieſt Hiſtory becomes the Object of Speculation. From a Principle of Curioſity, many who have but little or no Connection with the Britiſh Colonies in America, are now prying into the Story of their Riſe and Progreſs, while others wiſh for a farther Acquaintance with them from better, though perhaps more intereſted Motives. The Means of obtaining this Information, are not acceſſible by every Perſon, and if they were, are ſo ſcattered, that more Time would be neceſſary for collecting them, than would be neceſſary for reading them after they were collected.

To remove this Obſtruction from the Path of Science, and at the ſame Time lay the Foundation of a good American Hiſtory, by preſerving from Oblivion valuable Articles for that Purpoſe, it is propoſed to form a complete Collection of what may be with Propriety ſtiled,

AMERICAN STATE PAPERS.

This Collection will begin with the Grant from Henry 7th, to John Cabot, and his Sons for making Diſcoveries; and will include every important Public Paper (ſuch as Royal Grants, Charters, Acts of Parliament, &c. &c.) relating to America, of which either the Original, or authentic Copies can be procured, down to the preſent Time. The Hiſtory of the STAMP-ACT, and other Acts of the Britiſh Parliament for raiſing a Revenue among us by internal Taxation;—Reſolves of the American Aſſemblies;—Votes of Town Meetings;—and ſuch political Pamphlets and other fugitive Pieces as are properly connected with the general Deſign, and are worthy of Preſervation, will alſo be included; and to the whole will be added an INTRODUCTION, containing an Account of the Conſtitution of the different Britiſh American Colonies, and a very copious INDEX.

It is ſuppoſed that the Whole may be comprized in Five Volumes Octavo, and that the Price of each Volume, well bound and lettered, will not exceed one Dollar and a Half.

The Compilation is already begun, and ſhall be ſent to the Preſs as ſoon as it can be got ready, and a ſufficient Number of Subſcribers can be procured. Every Perſon muſt ſee that this Undertaking is attended with many and great Difficulties; and that the Compiler needs, what the Work, if well executed will merit, the friendly Aſſiſtance of others. He therefore ſolicits the public Patronage; and as the Work will not only ſerve to gratify the Curioſity of the Inquiſitive, but be eminently uſeful in much more important Points of View, he begs that Gentlemen, who are poſſeſſed of proper Materials for the Purpoſe, will be kind enough to favour him with the Uſe of them, and they ſhall be carefully returned.——They will be ſafely forwarded to him, if depoſited in the Hands of either of the following Gentlemen, who will alſo take in Subſcriptions, viz. Peter Timothy, in Charles-Town, South-Carolina; William Davis, Printer, Newbern, North-Carolina; John Dixon, Poſt-Maſter, Williamsburg; Catherine Green and Son, Annapolis; William & Thomas Bradford, and John Sparhawk, Philadelphia; Meſſrs. Noel & Hazard, and John Holt, New-York; James Lockwood, Bookſeller, New-Haven, Ebenezar Watſon, Printer, Hartford, Timothy Green, Printer, New-London, Robertſon and Trumbull, Norwich, Connecticut; John Carter, Printer, Providence, Solomon Southwick, Newport, Rhode-Iſland; Iſaiah Thomas, Edes & Gill, Boſton, Samuel Hall, Printer, Salem, Maſſachuſetts-Bay; Daniel Fowle, Printer, Portſmouth, New-Hampſhire.

CHARLES MAHON,

STAY-MAKER,

BEGS Leave to inform the Ladies of Charles-Town and others, That he carries on the Stay-making BUSINESS at Mr. AUSTIN's, Taylor, at the Corner of BURN's Wharf, near the Exchange; where he makes all Sorts of Plain, Pack-thread and turned Stays, Jumps, &c. &c. in the neateſt and neweſt Faſhion now wore, and not inferior in Goodneſs to any made in America. As he will make it his chief Study to render Satisfaction to thoſe Ladies who may pleaſe to employ him, he hopes for the Encouragement of the Public.

WILLIAM JONES,

BEGS Leave to acquaint his Cuſtomers and the Public in general, That he undertakes the repairing of Organs, Harpſichords, Spinnets, Violins, and other muſical Inſtruments, on reaſonable Terms: Thoſe Ladies or Gentlemen who may be pleaſed to favour him with their Cuſtom, may depend on his utmoſt Endeavour to give Satisfaction.—ſaid Jones lives in the Upper-End of the Old Barracks.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 8, 1774.

PROPOSALS

For PRINTING by SUBSCRIPTION,

A Collection of the LAWS, RELATING TO THE NAVAL TRADE OF THE BRITISH COLONIES IN NORTH-AMERICA.

IN which will be included, all the Acts of the BRITISH PARLIAMENT, and the Laws of the ſeveral Colonies on the Continent, relating to this Subject.

To which will be added,

COMPLETE INDEXES, which may ſerve as an Abridgment of the Laws;—LISTS of DUTIABLE GOODS, with the Duties payable for them;—ENUMERATED GOODS, &c. and Ample Directions for Maſters of Veſſels, For regularly entering and clearing at the Cuſtom-Houſe.

This Book will be printed on a good Paper, with a neat Type, and the Price of it in Boards ſhall not exceed THREE DOLLARS.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by Peter Timothy, in Charles-Town, South-Carolina.

When it is conſidered how amazingly the Laws of Naval Trade have been multiplied ſince the firſt Settlement of Britiſh America, the Utility of a Collection of them, it is preſumed, cannot be diſputed; eſpecially as the Conduct of a very great Body of People is to be regulated by them, and Ignorance of the Law is no Excuſe for Tranſgreſſion.

The Duty of all Perſons engaged in, or connected with Maritime Affairs, will be found in this Collection, as it will contain all the Laws relating to that Branch of Buſineſs, now in Force, which reſpect the Britiſh American Colonies.—Merchants, Maſters of Veſſels, and Mariners are principally concerned, but others too will be ſenſible of its Utility. The Officers of the Cuſtoms are particularly intereſted, as the Lines of their Duty are marked out herein with great Exactneſs:—Gentlemen of the Law will find ſuch a Collection uſeful as offering them at once what without it would coſt them tedious Reſearches in voluminous Codes:—To Courts of Law it will be important, as containing the Rules by which their Deciſions are to be formed:—Legiſlatures may meet with uſeful Precedents in it;—and even Governors are obliged by its Contents:—In ſhort no Man of Buſineſs ought to be without it. The Compiler therefore flatters himſelf with the Hopes of ſuch Encouragement as will render the Publication an Object worthy of Attention.

N. B. On Account of the preſent unſettled State of public Affairs, and as ſome Alteration may probably be made in the Laws reſpecting America, in Conſequence of the Meaſures now purſuing on both Sides of the Atlantic, the Compiler propoſes deferring the Publication of this Collection until ſuch Alterations (if any) can be added to it, that it may be as complete as poſſible: He hopes, however, that this Circumſtance will not prevent thoſe who propoſe to become Subſcribers, from favouring him with their Names, as upon the Encouragement received from them will depend its being publiſhed at all.

[NUMB. 2020.] MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1774.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

FRIEND JERE!

I AM moved by the Spirit, to anſwer and return thee Thanks for thy more then common Kindneſs, in ſetting forth my many Virtues and Qualifications, in ſo conſpicuous a Light for the public Good:—And, as Friend Turner is apt to think, that ſo laborious a Taſk has much impaired thy Health;—and to ſhew, that I am not ſo ungrateful as thou or ſome others may take me to be, I here preſent thee with a Panacea, prepared in the Houſe thou hinted was in ſo much Danger—as a Cordial for Qualms of Conſcience—Firſt, for bearing falſe Witneſs againſt thy Neighbour.—Secondly, for not keeping that Command, Uſe has made a ſecond Nature.—And Thirdly, for uttering that with thy Lips, which thou knoweſt to be not the Truth.——Thou ſayeſt, that I impoſed myſelf on ſome Gentlemen in this Place, for what I was not:—Thy Words are falſe!—I was recommended to Doctor C————s, in this Place, and have at this Time by me, a Certificate, ſigned by two Members of the Royal Society, certifying at large, my Knowledge in Chemiſtry, and the Docimaſtical Art; likewiſe, that I told thoſe Gentlemen, that I knew where valuable Mines lay; but thou forgot to inform the World that, after I had gave thoſe Gentlemen Memorandums of thoſe Mines, I never was ſupplied with Hands, Mony, &c. ſufficient to work them:—And furthermore, that I duped thoſe Gentlemen out of large Sums of Money, and now reap the Benefit myſelf.—This is likewiſe falſe:—Be it known, that I did receive One Thouſand Pounds Currency from thoſe Gentlemen; but be it further known, That I paid, with that Sum, for the Carriage of various Lumber, to be Back Parts of this Province and Cherokee Nation, Hirelings, Waggons, &c. likewiſe for ſurveying ſeveral Tracts of Land, and travelling Expences for ſelf, Man, and two Horſes, to different Parts of this Province, Cherokee Nation, and North-Carolina; and this in the Space of nine Months, and giving in the Whole, more than a Year's Time Fatigue, &c. without the leaſt Benefit or Advantage.

And thou Whelp of Darkneſs! I will leave the Impartial to judge, how far my Views could be to dupe thoſe Gentlemen, when I, as a full Partner, and equal Sharer with them, agreed, upon theſe Conditions, That they were to be at all the Expences that attended the working of the Mines, &c.—and I only to receive the Thirteenth Share of my own Diſcoveries, to pay me for my Time and Trouble, without any Gratuity from them, then the Sum before-mentioned, which was expended for the different Purpoſes aforeſaid.—Mr. MASK! the World is not ſo far diveſted of common Senſe, to think that I would loſe my Time, ſuffer the Fatigue of long Journies, Heat and Cold, lying out in the wild Woods, &c. and run thoſe Gentlemen to Expences, without having my own Intereſt at Heart: Beſides, that Intereſt depended ſolely on my Inſtruttry and Diſcoveries. But, JERE! Why was thou ſo careful to conceal thy real Name! Had thou been conſcious, that what thou aſſerted was true, thou never would have laid ſo ſtrict an Injunction on Mr. TIMOTHY, not to divulge thee.

JERE! Be it known, I ſuſpect thou art a double-faced Friend of mine: And, as Shakeſpeare obſerves—He that ſteals my Money ſteals Thraſh; 'tis ſomething, nothing, and has been Slave to Thouſands; but thou, to endeavour, under the ſpecious Show of Friendſhip to ſteal from me my own good Name, is in thee an Action baſe indeed.—A Wretch, whoſe Heart and Tongue is never coequal, and marked by Nature, with a baſe and lowering Aſpect; often in Public ſeen with an affected Grin upon the Countenance, as if one Part of the Man was made for to deſpiſe the other.—And, as thy Actions denote thou art of a Wolf-like Nature, howl on, grin, ſnarl, and ſhow thy Teeth; for 'tis ſeldom that ſuch like Actions are minded, except by Children.——As to my Knowledge in Phyſic, &c. whatever I publicly aſſerted, I am able to maintain: And, if Health is a Bleſſing, every Attempt which directs towards its Preſervation, muſt at leaſt, deſerve a ſmall Share of Public Applauſe. And any one that endeavours to ſuppreſs or depricate a Perſon that's publickly known, to have made Enquiries for that End, never can be looked upon either as a uſeful Member to Society, or a Friend to Community; for he not only aims to hurt the Perſon that's taken Pains to make Diſcoveries uſeful for the Public Good, but endeavours to debar the Public from reaping the Advantage of thoſe Diſcoveries.—It has ever been allowed, by the beſt Phyſicians, in all Ages, that ſimple Medicines in general, was the moſt ſure and ſafe Remedies, for the different Diſorders incident to Mankind; they likewiſe obſerved that, the Produce of each Country, was better adapted to the Conſtitutions of its Inhabitants, then what might be imported from foreign Parts.——Now JERE! as the preſent Times ſeem to induce that uſeful Diſcoveries, as well for Medicinal Purpoſes, as the Machanic Arts will be exceptable here: And, as thou haſt endeavoured to make the Public believe thou art much intreſted for her Welfare. The ſure Way for the Public to come at the real Truth; and thou, to prove thy Aſſertions againſt me, will be, to meet Friend Turner at ſome Public Place in this Town, and each Man there give his Proofs, before a Number of impartial Judges, and let them diſtinguiſh the Man that endeavours, under a ſpecious Show, to make his Market out of the Public, from him that may deſerve the Name of a uſeful Member to Society.——JERE! If this Propoſal be agreeable to thee, ſignify it in the next Paper, and ſign thy real Name at length, as not any further Notice will be taken of thy anonymous Braying.

WILLIAM-VERNON TURNER.

N. B. If any one ſhould think that TURNER took a long Time to anſwer his Friend JEREMIAH, let this ſuffice——That it is cuſtomary for the Friends to wait the Motion of the Spirit.

A View of Charles-Town:

THIS View has been taken with the greateſt Accuracy and Care by Mr. LEECH, who is now employed about painting a finiſhed Picture from the Drawings already made by him.—The Picture will be ready to ſend Home by the next Ships, expected from London, in order to be engraved; and will be ſo exact a Portrait of the Town, as it appears from the Water, that every Houſe in View will be diſtinctly known:—And that nothing might be wanting to render it moſt compleat, the two greateſt Artiſts in the World, Meſſrs. WOOLLETT and SMITH, have been engaged and have undertaken to engrave it.

Mr. LEECH cannot ſupport the Expence of ſuch a Work without Aſſiſtance, and therefore propoſes, to all the Lovers of the Polite Arts, opening a Subſcription, at ſo low a Price as a GUINEA a Piece:—Half to be paid down at the Time of ſubſcribing, the other Half on the Delivery of the Print.

The Print will be Thirty Inches long, by Eighteen high; and that the Impreſſions may be moſt compleat, as ſoon as Three Hundred are ſubſcribed for, the Subſcription will be cloſed, the Picture ſent Home, and no more ſtruck off than are ſubſcribed for.
